HARTLEY & GIBSON'S MANZANILLA

Origin: Jerez de la Frontera, Spain
Serving Temperature: Serve Chilled or on-the-rocks.
Food: Served before or after lunch or dinner.

Not everyone is aware that Sherry wine was first produced in Spain and that the name "Sherry" is, in fact, derived from "Jerez" (actually Jerez de la Frontera) the town in which the world famous Sherry producers are located.

One of the historic families of Jerez de la Frontera was B. Vergara whose firm has produced fine Sherries since the year 1780.

From that beginning, a dedicated attention to every detail passed on from father to son has developed a tradition of quality that has earned unsurpassed reputation among Sherry aficionados and the honor of being PURVEYORS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF SPAIN.

The Macharnudo Vineyard (see label) has been cultivated for over 550 years. It is the finest Sherry District in the world where the most expensive grapes are grown...rich, lush grapes from which truly great sherries are produced.

Manzanilla (man-than-nee-ya) is a luscious, ripe and fruity wine produced in the Vergara Bodegas. The dry, mildy tangy floral flavors that kiss & run make it a truly delicious appetite stimulant.

HARTLEY & GIBSON'S MANZANILLA will perfectly accompany shellfish or a seafood meal.
